ROBERT McCURDY GUYTON
(21 November 1802 - April 1841)
Will 4 April 1841 and proven 3 May 1841
Probate Court, Anderson District, South Carolina

Abstract:

Wife and children to remain upon place I now occupy and family to be kept together, both black and white, and that my man Isaac be allowed a reasonable share of direction and management of my farm for raising of my children so long as he shall conduct as well as he has done heretofore. Wife to have entire control of estate for life or widowhood. At death divided among my children when youngest of age or married, provided all other children are of age at the time. Titles be made by executors to land recently sold to Henry Keasler and Nimrod Smith. Monies arising from estates of my father-in-law Benjamin Duckworth and from estate of my father be put to interest for benefit of my children. Children should be well raised and educated. Wife Hester. Executors: John W. Guyton and William Webb. Dated 4 Apr. 1841.
